

Who we are:

psyCH is the umbrella organization of psychology students throughout Switzerland and represents their interests. Psychology students from all universities and universities of applied sciences are members of psyCH. We support and accompany Swiss psychology students during their studies and beyond by providing...

- ... essential information concerning the study of psychology at universities in Switzerland
- ... information concerning advanced studies and career entry
- ... social exchange and cooperation between students and professionals
- ... tools to develop ideas and skills and creatively plan their future
- ... opportunities, to accumulate knowledge & experience that serves beyond the educational time

How you can benefit from working with psyCH:

- You will reach over 9000¹ future psychologists throughout Switzerland
- We offer you unique networking opportunities with professional newcomers
- You get the opportunity to spread awareness and spark the new generation's interest
- You can support young students through one of our projects

How we can work together:

Our projects include the psyCH Blog, psyPra, the psyCH Trainers' School and the psyKo.

> psyKo

Every year a team of highly motivated students organizes the national congress of Swiss psychology students. Students from all regions of Switzerland take part at our event. The program spans three days in which talks and workshops surrounding one specific topic enable the participants to gain a deeper understanding of the work it requires to research a topic and its aspects in the professional setting. It is an excellent networking opportunity not only for our participants but also for lecturers, organizations and institutions who have an interest in possible newcomers in their field. Next to lecturers from the professional field students have the opportunity to present their own research projects.

Upcoming this year we will discuss "Healthy Mind, Healthy Body - What Does Health Mean to

> psyCH Trainer's School

The Trainers' School on the one hand educates students as trainers to ensure a smooth start for the volunteers of psyCH each year and on the other hand trains further volunteers in local and international associations and NGOs. The Trainers' School takes place every year for one week and is mostly self-financing. If you are still interested in working with us, we would be very happy to hear from you.

> psyPra

psyPra is an internship platform that was created in cooperation between the umbrella organization of Swiss psychology students and the professional association FSP (Federation of Swiss Psychologists). psyPra currently works with more than 100 institutions throughout Switzerland that advertise internship positions as needed.

If you would like to offer an internship, we will be happy to advertise it for you! You can get more information under the following link: <https://psychologiestudierende.ch/psypra/submit/>

> psyCH Blog

The psyCH Blog is published weekly. We write articles about our events, current research topics in psychology and relevant topics around the everyday life of students. As a sponsoring partner, you have the opportunity to publish a blog post on our website & social media channels.

As an institution, you benefit from a wide reach among psychology students throughout Switzerland for your internship opportunities. Our website is visited by between 12,500 and 15,000 people per month who read our blog and find psychology internship opportunities.
